

Immaculate Conception Parish, St. Marys

Holy Cross Church, Emmett

St. Stanislaus Parish, Delia/Rossville/Silver Lake

Jesus said to his disciples: "You have heard that it was said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. But I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil. When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one as well. If anyone wants to go to law with you over your tunic, hand over your cloak as well. Should anyone press you into service for one mile, go for two miles. Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow.

"You Have heard that it was said, You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy, But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your heavenly Father, for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good, and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what recompense will you have? Do not the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet your brothers only, what is unusual about that? Do not the pagans do the same? So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Marriage Minute ~

In this week's readings, we are exhorted to "be holy." Often, we think this is a lofty call for those off in monasteries. It's not! We are all called to holiness, and for married people, our vocation of marriage is our pathway to get there. St. Katherine Drexel said that holiness consists in "Doing God's will as he wills it, because he wills it." For us, that is often so simple we miss it. It is found in things like:

- Doing that sink full of dishes or that load of laundry
- Being home from work on time, so you can eat with the family
- Helping with bedtime
- Taking an extra 30 seconds to text your spouse something you appreciate about them
- Saying a short prayer together before you both head out the door in the morning
- Taking time to prioritize your marriage through an enrichment.

For more ideas on seeking holiness through marriage see: www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
