Marriage Minute ~

This week, St. Paul reminds us that "While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." As married people, we are called to imitate Jesus by laying down our lives for our spouses, a theme that runs through many of our most cherished love stories. We see great nobility in one spouse taking a bullet for the other, but this is not the normal way we are called to live this out. If we are willing to die for each other literally, we must be willing to die to ourselves in little ways... while our spouse is still a sinner. Here are some ideas:

- Pick up those socks without comment.
- Answer a bad attitude with lavish affirmation.
- Do one of your spouse's chores without getting noticed.
- Seek understanding instead of the "last word."
- Listen to your spouse without trying to "fix the problem".

There will be a guided meditation, centering prayer, Lectio meditation and time for your reflections in silence. The mysticism of Teresa of Avila and John of the Cross will be reviewed. This retreat will be conducted by Benedictine Sister Sheila Carroll, OSB who serves on the Sophia staff as a spiritual director.
