The Return of the Twelve

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place. People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them. When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

Fruitfulness of Service

Eric was a celebrant of life in Brazil,
In love with farm, family, and faith;
He stood tall, showed others the way,
Knew their language of tongue and heart.

Mother, father, children two,
In field of soy beans, their daily labor,
Joined by pastor, advisor, student, teacher
Eric knew the soil and cheered the soul.

To love is to admire and to “be with,”
To share the daily, the growth and the struggle,
To lessen the dangers and enhance the yield,
To build up honor and respect and optimism.

Eric is buried in the country he called paradise,
His priesthood touched all living things,
His will to live couldn’t overcome cancer,
His legacy of service, however, is alive.

Christ lived this way, being human with us;
He calls us to see this service and suffering,
And once seen, to walk similar paths,
Confident that He continues with us.

We step beyond the “giving up”
To the “doing with” which leads to love.
Love is fruitful, and our greatest joy is sharing
Every experience of rising from death to life.

Abbot Barnabas Senecal, OSB
