Saying Against Greed and Parable of the Rich Fool

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

Then he told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest? And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry," But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to who will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

Sunday Funny ~ Whiteboards are remarkable!!

Marriage Minute

How do we treat our treasures? Treasured items do not end up covered in something sticky at the bottom of your purse, or under a dirty pile in the garage. We proudly display them, usually up high, in order to both admire them and keep them safe. Today Jesus tells us that our heart will be with our treasure. Is your marriage your treasure? Ask yourself:

- Do I have a reverence for my marriage?
- Do I put my marriage "up high" by prioritizing my spouse over work, activities, decisions, etc.?
- Do I protect my marriage through prayer, positive speech, reconciling hurts and healthy boundaries with others?

If you answered no to these questions, you are not alone! Consider making an investment in your marriage by attending an enrichment activity: www.archkck.org/family. Marital treasure collects compound interest far greater than financial treasure!

RETREAT OPPORTUNITY –
