Vigilant and Faithful Servants

“Gird your loins and light your lamps and be like servants who await their master’s return from a wedding, ready to open immediately when he comes and knocks. Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival. Amen, I say to you , he will gird himself, have them recline at table, and proceed to wait on them. And should he come in the second or third watch and find them prepared in this way, blessed are those servants. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour when the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

Marriage Minute

Have you ever been the butt of family jokes because you attend Mass faithfully, make counter-cultural parenting decisions or have "too many" kids? If your faith has ever made you unpopular, you're experiencing what Jesus describes in the Gospel this week. Sometimes our faith becomes a dividing line between us and family, and this can make us feel torn or even guilty for causing the disruption. We need to remember that Jesus is calling us to authentic unity with our loved ones, and unity ultimately comes from Him. It may seem as if our getting serious about faith caused the problem, but really we are just the first to take a step toward authentic unity. Like Christ himself, we can help to bring our loved ones along through our silent, loving witness and by offering the pain of being misunderstood for the conversion of our loved ones.
