

Immaculate Conception Parish, St. Marys

Holy Cross Church, Emmett

St. Stanislaus Parish, Delia/Rossville/Silver Lake

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

Marriage Minute ~

Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? The question posed to us in this weekend's readings is especially applicable to married couples. When we are hurt by our spouse, it may be helpful to take some time to cool down, but extended time of venting, silent treatment or replaying the offense in our minds not only hurts our spouse but prevents us from healing, too! Here are a few hints to avoid this:
 * While times are good, decide on a process for how you will handle hurts
 * Consider a letter-writing process so you are less likely to say things you don't mean
 * Commit to deal with hurts promptly so that they don't fester, and lovingly, so you don't cause more hurt
 To learn a very practical skill for reconciling hurts, attend an Every Day in Love course! www.joyfulmarriageproject.com

Christ Life-Sharing Christ ~

This session of Christ Life—Sharing Christ explains that the real evangelizer is the Holy Spirit, not us. We are only His messengers. We learn that without the Holy Spirit there is no evangelization. We are invited to deepen our relationship with the Holy Spirit and to tap into the power that is ours because of our Baptism and Confirmation. Join us at Most Pure Heart of Mary parish in O'Connor Hall at 6:30pm on Sept. 28th.
