Twenty-Eighth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying “ The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, ‘Tell those invited: “Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast.’” Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, ‘The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.’ The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, ‘My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?’ But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, ‘Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.’ Many are invited, but few are chosen.”

Marriage Minute ~

What do you think? This weekend, St. Paul gets very specific in his recommendations of what we should think about. Why? Because what we spend time thinking about, we see more of! Thinking about what color to paint your house? All you notice is the colors of the houses in your neighborhood.

Chances are, you married someone who is a mix of strengths and weaknesses. Why not spend time thinking about your spouse's wonderful qualities? It won't make the bad things go away, but you will be spending so much time looking for the good that you won't notice as much. This week think about your spouse's:

- Most endearing qualities
- Most recent sacrificial act
- Most attractive traits

For more encouragement in thinking the best about your spouse, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
