All Saints' Day-Nov. 1

All Saints' Day (also known as All Hallows' Day or Hallow-mas) is the day after All Hallows' Eve (Hallowe'en). It is a feast day celebrated on 1st November by Anglicans and Roman Catholics.

It is an opportunity for believers to remember all saints and martyrs, known and unknown, throughout Christian history. As part of this day of obligation, believers are required to attend church and try not to do any servile work.

Remembering saints and martyrs and dedicating a specific day to them each year has been a Christian tradition since the 4th century AD, but it wasn't until 609AD that Pope Boniface IV decided to remember all martyrs. Originally 13th May was designated as the Feast of All Holy Martyrs. Later, in 837AD, Pope Gregory IV extended the festival to remember all the saints, changed its name to Feast of All Saints and changed the date to 1st November.

History of All Souls Day

The importance of All Souls Day was made clear by Pope Benedict XV (1914-22), when he granted all priests the privilege of celebrating three Masses on All Souls Day: one for the faithful departed; one for the priest's intentions; and one for the intentions of the Holy Father. Only on a handful of other very important feast days are priests allowed to celebrate more than two Masses.

On All Souls Day, we not only remember the dead, but we apply our efforts, through prayer, almsgiving, and the Mass, to their release from Purgatory. There are two plenary indulgences attached to All Souls Day, one for visiting a church and another for visiting a cemetery. (The plenary indulgence for visiting a cemetery can also be obtained every day from November 1-8, and, as a partial indulgence, on any day of the year.) While the actions are performed by the living, the merits of the indulgences are applicable only to the souls in Purgatory.

Praying for the dead is a Christian obligation. In the modern world, when many have come to doubt the Church's teaching on Purgatory, the need for such prayers has only increased. The Church devotes the month of November to prayer for the Holy Souls in Purgatory, and participation in the Mass of All Souls Day is a good way to begin the month.

Book of the Dead ~ The book of the dead will be located on the west side of the sanctuary starting Nov. 1st. You can write in your deceased loved ones names and they will be prayed for all during the month of November.

On Behalf of UNBOUND I want to thank Father Ray and all the parishioners of Immaculate Conception and St. Stanislaus for the warm welcome you gave to me last weekend. We received 28 new sponsorships in addition to those who became sponsors on previous visits to your parishes. We also received several one-time donations. So thank you so much for being a part of our mission to the poor overseas. I enjoyed my visit. May God continue to bless you for your love and compassion for poor and needy children in the world. If you wish to learn more about UNBOUND or still wish to become a sponsor, you may go online at unbound.org.

Thank you! Fr. Bob Hasenkamp.
