The Question About the Resurrection

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put the question to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, if someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants of his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her. Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise. That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord', the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living for to him all are alive."

Marriage Minute ~

What is keeping you from the marriage of your dreams? Every marriage launches with an incredible dream for happiness, but all too often, hardships come, and we lose the zeal to think we can have anything other than a mediocre marriage. We say to ourselves, “I guess this is all there is to marriage.”

In this week’s Gospel, Zachaeus, had the courage and ingenuity to overcome his obstacle to happiness by climbing a tree to see His Lord. For Zachaeus, his height was an obstacle, but for many of us, it is not a matter of physical stature, but a stature of attitude. We lack the courage and humility to rise above pettiness, busyness, wounded pride, comfort, and sometimes simple planning to actualize the marriage we dreamed of in the beginning.

Consider marriage enrichment activities to be the tree you climb to overcome any obstacles in your way of increased joy in your marriage. Check out www.joyfulmarriageproject.com for suggestions.

The Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services will be taken up the this weekend. Please be as generous as possible.
