Christ, King of the Universe

The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Marriage Minute ~

“If you are a King..., save yourself.” As we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King this Sunday, we gain an important lesson in authority that we can apply to our families.

The scoffing onlookers (those who did not know Christ) represent the mistaken notion that authority is meant for the benefit of the one who possesses it. Christ teaches the opposite; true authority is intended and given to display generosity and given for the benefit of those served.

In marriage and parenting, it can be easy to sit back and wait for others to earn our service or respect, but this is a self-serving attitude and a misuse of authority. Christ calls us to something greater and more fulfilling. Respect is gained when it is given. Joy is gained when service is offered. For practical applications of other centered authority and love, go to www.joyfulmarriageproject.com.

Sunday Funny ~ When using a public campground, a tuba placed on your picnic table will keep the campsites on either side vacant!!
