FEAST OF THE ASCENSION

The reality of Christ's Ascension is so important that the creeds (the basic statements of the belief) of Christianity all affirm, in the words of the Apostles' Creed, that "He ascended into heaven, sits at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead." The denial of the Ascension is as grave a departure from Christian teaching as is denial of the Christ's Resurrection. Christ's bodily Ascension foreshadows our own entrance into Heaven not simply as souls, after our death, but as glorified bodies, after the resurrection of the dead at the Final Judgment. In redeeming mankind, Christ not only offered salvation to our souls but began the restoration of the material world itself to the glory that God intended before. The Feast of the Ascension marks the beginning of the first novena, or nine days of prayer. Before His Ascension, Christ promised to send the Holy Spirit to His apostles. Their prayer for the coming of the Holy Spirit, which began on Ascension Thursday, ended with the descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday, ten days later.

Sunday Funny ~

After a heavy rainstorm filled all the potholes in the streets and alleys with water, a young mother watched her two little boys playing in the puddle through her kitchen window. The older of the two, a 5 yr old lad, grabbed his sibling by the back of his head and shoved his face into the water hole. As the boy recovered & stood laughing & dripping, the mother runs to the yard in a panic. "Why on earth did you do that to your little brother?" she asked angrily. "We were just playing 'church', Mommy, "I was baptizing him in the name of the Father, Son, and in the hole-he-goes."

Marriage Minute ~

During a rough patch in your marriage, have you ever wondered what you got yourself into? Sometimes the monastery looks pretty good, and we can wonder if we missed our call! In this weekend's Gospel, the disciples "worshiped, but they doubted." Jesus appears to them after rising from the dead, and they still aren't 100% convinced. What more could he possibly do?

Well he has a plan. He will send the Holy Spirit to clothe them "with power from on high." This Spirit will take the outward evidence they have seen and put it into their hearts, so not only will their own doubts be gone, but they will be able to witness to others.

That same Spirit will come upon us next Sunday at Pentecost! To prepare, offer Jesus:

*reoccurring conflicts with your spouse that make you feel "stuck"

*frustrating things about your spouse you don't understand.

*any disappointment or doubt

Will the Spirit work through an enrichment?
