The Call of Simon the Fisherman

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon. "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

“For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon your offspring, and my blessing on your descendants.”
Isaiah 44:3

Pentecost is a time for inspiration,
 To be renewed in spirit and in mind,
 To allow a ferment to rise within,
 In a setting of optimism and hope.

Here the water sprays upward, reaching out to those around,
 an image of strength in concrete,
 green the grass nearby.

Annunciation Monastery, home to Benedictine women, bears an imprint
 Of Marcel Breurer architecture,
 In building, bell tower and walkway.

Wind and light, hills and prairie define the area, give place to university and religious yearning and learning, a Center for Servant Leadership.

Known for severely cold winters,
 rich in wheat and long days of summer sun, residents value water and time for harvest.

Residents of the Bismarck are 47%
 Roman Catholic, celebrating Pentecost with Lutherans, Methodists, Assemblies of God, Baptists, Presbyterians, others.

Pro-Life Info ~ Adult stem cells remain the only type of stem cell used successfully to treat human patients. Adult stem cells have many advantages. They can be isolated from numerous tissues, including bone marrow, muscle, fat, and umbilical cord blood, just to name a few. And isolating the adult stem cells from tissues of a patient or a healthy donor does not require harming or destroying the donor, giving adult stem cells a decided ethical advantage over embryonic stem cells. (NRL News, Summer 2012)

RCIA ~ Monday, Feb. 11th, 7pm, Rm 3 at IC. Topic: Sacrament of the Eucharist, Structure, Part II.

Year of Faith Indulgences ~ Archbishop Naumann has named the following churches/shrines as holy sites within the Archdiocese at which pilgrims may visit to obtain the plenary indulgence during the Year of Faith as proclaimed by the Holy Father (Oct. 11, 2012 through Nov. 24, 2013). They are: Cathedral of St. Peter, KS City, KS; Immaculate Conception, St. Marys; Immaculate Conception, Leavenworth; Shrine of St. Rose Philippine Duchesne, Mound City; SRPD Memorial Park, Centerville; Assumption Church, Topeka; St. Marys/St. Benedict, Nemaha County. Information will be coming out from the Archbishop soon describing the indulgence and how the faithful obtain it.

Reasons a Parish Establishes An Endowment Fund~

(1) To provide donors with a way to leave a legacy; (2) past generations built our parish communities and now we need to take a leadership role to ensure that future generations will have the same faith community; (3) to help bequests to have a bigger impact.

Call to Share ~ Your pledge is appreciated! As we look at our lives and the many ways God has blessed us, let us give back a proportionate gift to the Archbishop's Call to Share to share the joy of believing. Our archdiocesan family is truly an extension of our parish life. We are grateful to those who take part in this effort!

(Once we reach our goal, 25% of each dollar raised over the goal will be returned to our parish.)
