The Temptations of Jesus

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, one does not live on bread alone." Then he took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a single instant. The devil said to him, "I shall give to you all this power and glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I may give it to whomever I wish. All this will be yours if you worship me." Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written:

*You shall worship the Lord, your God,
And him alone shall you serve."*

Then he led him to Jerusalem, made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written;

He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you,

And:

*With their hands they will support you,
lest you dash your foot against a stone."*

Jesus said to him in reply, "It also says, "You shall not put the Lord your God, to the test." When the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from him for a time.

The Way of the Cross, Windows of Faith

“If you uphold me I shall be unharmed
And set in your presence for evermore.”

Ps. 41 v.12

Sunlight shines through these windows, brilliant in their design and color, a constant reminder to the faithful, “Christ walked this way for you.”

The empty pews await you and me, to share the experience of Christ, to appreciate in our own lives how Christ has modeled acceptance.

We enter those pews daily, appreciating family and friends who help us along the way, who share our joy and sadness.

We enter those pews to renew our willingness to bear difficulty with grace and peace, confident that Christ walks with us.

“The Way of the Cross,” in pane of glass, in pain of flesh, surrounds the faith family in days of Lent, even always.

These fourteen stations in glass, panels of wordless preaching, draw Overland Park faithful to prayer, and hold them there.
