Holy Cross Church, Emmett

St. Stanislaus Parish, Delia/Rossville/Silver Lake

Excerpt from St. Faustina's Journal

November 5, 1934. One morning, when it was my duty to open the gate to let out our people who deliver baked goods, I entered the little chapel to visit Jesus for a minute and to renew the intentions of the day. Today, Jesus, I offer You all my sufferings, mortifications and prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father, so that he may approve the Feast of Mercy. But, Jesus, I have one more word to say to You: I am very surprised that You bid me to talk about this Feast of Mercy for they tell me that there is already such a feast and so why should I talk about it? And Jesus said to me, And who knows anything about this feast? No one! Even those who should be proclaiming My mercy and teaching people about it often do not know about it themselves. That is why I want the image to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it. Make a Novena for the Holy Father's intention. It should consist of thirty-three acts; that is, repetition that many times of the short prayer - which I have taught you - to the Divine Mercy. (341)

“Let the earth bring forth vegetation: every kind of plant that bears seed and every kind of fruit tree on earth that bears fruit with its seed in it.”

First Reading of Easter Vigil: Genesis 1:12

As told by the writer of Genesis, it was on the third day of creation, God wanted fruit trees whose fruit contained seeds. The Apple.

Apples grown in monk orchards, sliced to fill pies and strudel, baked whole in a dumpling, pressed into a drink. The Press.

This watercolor he painted recalls how much Father Angelus loved seed bearing fruit; he was enlivened by them. The Monk.

If he could fit them into pockets, he'd do it. If invited to a table, he'd do it. If a garden was sighted, he'd stop near it. The Garden.

Easter invite us to regain confidence in our ability to bear fruit-and to enjoy fruit, not saddened by death. "He lives."

An apple might have been the beginning of alienation from God. Now, it and all seed bearing fruit affirm God's goodness. The Fruit.

Abbot Barnabas Senecal, O.S.B.
