The Appearance to the Seven Disciples

At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead.

Dying Is A Movement Inward

“Yet I was always in your presence;
you were holding me by
my right hand.”
Ps. 73, v.23

Dying is a movement inward,
something natural and final,
following a pattern of growth
which moved outward from a point.

A Brazilian fan palm, open to sun,
has such growth and pattern,
its leaves clinging together
even as it spreads out in beauty.

Such symmetry is of nature,
it flows from what is within,
bursting with beauty,
nurtured by sunlight.

Human life has centeredness;
the years cling together,
making a beautiful pattern visible to those around.

God’s grace is such a power,
forming us within our nature,
binding what is good, in patterns,
making a oneness of many parts.

Death is seen by us daily,
part of the pattern of life;
we remain focused on our center,
what has bound us in one, remains.

He Grants What Is Best

We build our future plans and hopes
 Upon the transient life,
 And then once the bubble bursts,
 Our day is filled with strife.
 Could we not learn to trust in Him,
 Seek what He knows is best;
 Commit our ways unto His care,
 Trust Him for daily rest.
 What blessings will await us!
 He grants what is the best.

Charles G. Ramsey
