The Feast of the Ascension... and Graduation???

Dear Graduates,

At first you might wonder how the Feast of the Ascension and your graduation might be connected to each other. Jesus shows us that after the Resurrection, He ascends to be with His Heavenly Father... that is our ultimate goal too! So, allow your decisions about your future to be effected by the reality that one day each of us desires to be united with God the Father, Jesus His Son, and the Holy Spirit... not to mention the angels and saints, and all of our family and friends, waiting for us in Heaven. Don't let society tell you what is important for your futures; but know in your heart what will truly make you happy for eternal life... seek the will of God in your lives!

Congratulations, graduates! We are very proud of you!

Mary, Our Sinless Mother

Jesus was walking along one day, when He came upon a group of people surrounding a lady of ill repute. It was obvious that the crowd was preparing to stone her, so Jesus made His now-famous statement, "Let the person who has no sin cast the first stone."

The crowd was shamed and one by one began to turn away and leave. All of a sudden, a lovely little woman made her way through the crowd. Finally getting to the front, she tossed a pebble towards the woman.

Jesus looks over and says, "I really hate when you do that, MOM!"
