

Immaculate Conception Parish, St. Marys

Holy Cross Church, Emmett

The Holy Trinity

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, Timothy 3:16

“Why Squirrels need Scripture” is the first Google offer in my request for squirrels in Scripture; another praises the squirrel’s spirit.

They dart about, living dangerously, without obvious destination or destiny, but they are fun for us to watch, and we worry not about their salvation.

This squirrel clings confidently to the bark of this cedar tree, on the east side of our church, lighted nicely by afternoon sun.

Praise is given the squirrel for its apparent purposefulness in gathering nuts, for self and all, “It’s work is important.”

Squirrels move on power lines, using their tail for balance. We dare not imitate them, although we admire them.

Some want to hunt squirrels, mid-November to mid-February, squirrels use their quickness to avoid the loss of their furry hide.

Abbot Barnabas Senecal, O.S.B.
