The Pardon of the Sinful Woman

A Pharisee invited Jesus to dine with him, and he entered the Pharisee's house and reclined at table. Now there was a sinful woman in the city who learned that he was at table in the house of the Pharisee. Bringing an alabaster flask of ointment, she stood behind him at his feet weeping and began to bathe his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them, and anointed them with the ointment. When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what sort of woman this is who is touching him, that she is a sinner." Jesus said to him in reply, "Simon, I have something to say to you." "Tell me, teacher," he said. "Two people were in debt to a certain creditor; one owed five hundred days' wages and the other owed fifty.

Since they were unable to repay the debt, he forgave it for both. Which of them will love him more?" Simon said in reply, "The one, I suppose whose larger debt was forgiven." He said to him, "You have judged rightly." Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? When I entered your house, you did not give me water for my feet, but she has bathed them with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You did not give me a kiss, but she has not ceased kissing my feet since the time I entered. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she anointed my feet with ointment. So I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven because she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little." He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." The others at table said to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?" But he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

You Refresh Us,
You Defend Us
(Sequence, Solemnity of Body and Blood )

“Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood will live in me and I in him, says the Lord. John 6:56

“Want to ride along?
It really is fun, with Dad;
we look for those flags
and hit toward them.

“He tells me what he’s doing,
but I really don’t understand,
I’m glad he takes me along,
he’s kind and talks to me.”

“Mom spends lots of time with me,
at home and as she shops in stores,
she’s glad when Dad arrives after work,
sharing life with us at home.

“I am a fourth child, arriving late,
they tell me, late in their lives;
I think it’s great, they being older,
I being so young, so loved.

“They take me with them to church
and often talk of God; they receive His Body and Blood, they say,
to share in the life of Christ.

“I’m glad they get nourished
and keep themselves strong;
one day I’ll be older, able to be nourished in this way, too.” Jake,
