Peter's Confession About Jesus

Once when Jesus was praying in solitude, and the disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, 'One of the ancient prophets has arisen.'" Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said in reply, "The Christ of God." He rebuked them and directed them not to tell this to anyone. He said, "The Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised." Then he said to all "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it.

“He gazes from the place where he dwells Looking on all those who dwell on the earth, He who shapes the hearts of them all And considers all their deeds.”

Psalm 33:13-15

Stone carvers gathered here, under bright summer sun, sharing talent with passers by, shaping stone with patterns in mind.

Joe grasped chisel and hammer, a foundry pattern maker, making molds for molten metal, to become trucks, frames and axels.

Over fifty years he’s lived in town, starting as a World War II refugee, leaving his war-torn Hungary, able to shape wood and his future.

An accident took his fingers, his spirit and talent endured; faces and statues he carved, evidences of disciplined skills.

Joe’s spirit we admire, to be without home and hand, to be humble, accepting what is, to be the artist of one’s life,

Praise the Lord, summer sun, praise the Lord, craftsman hands, praise the Lord, enduring spirit, praise the Lord, created things.
