The Rich Man

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."

St. Stanislaus Inquiries ~ Several inquiries have been made regarding the two large paintings that are hung in the hallway from the church to the hall at St. Stanislaus. A couple of years ago Mike Debus painted the two pictures of Jesus and Mary during the dinner that was served at Abundant Blessings. At the live auction a bidding battle between the east side and west side guests ended in both sides purchasing each of the paintings for the parish.

Also, the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary which is located in front of the church was donated in memory of Irene and Bernard Dougherty.

The Letters (The Epic Life Story of Mother Teresa) ~ Friday, Nov. 13th, 7:30pm at the Glenwood Arts Theatre, 3707 W 95th St., Leawood, KS. 6pm: Reception with the director at Ranch View Floral, 3885 W. 95th St., Leawood, KS. Tickets only available online. $10 admission.
